

AGENDA: Online Seminar of the German Initiative on Sustainable Cocoa

Local approaches against child labour: Insights into the national strategies of our partner countries and implementation on the ground

Tuesday, 15 March 2022, 10.30 am – 12.00 pm

Moderation: Beate Weiskopf, German Initiative on Sustainable Cocoa

Language: German, English and French with simultaneous interpretation

10.30 am Welcome and introduction to the issue
Beate Weiskopf, German Initiative on Sustainable Cocoa

10.40 am Ghana
National Plan of Action Phase II (NPA2) (for the Elimination of Child Labour)
Incl. focus on Child Labour Free Zones
Elizabeth Akanbombire, Head of the Child Labour Unit, Ministry of Employment and Labour Relations (MELR)

11.00 am Côte d'Ivoire
Plan d'Action National 2019-2021 de lutte contre la traite, l'exploitation et le travail des enfants
Amany Konan, National Consultant in charge of the Fight against Child Labour at the First Lady's Cabinet – requested

11.20 am Practical insights
Development of a complementary risk-based model for the prediction of child labour by ICI within the framework of the GIZ project "Green Innovation Centre" in Côte d'Ivoire
Alice Faudot-Miguet, International Cocoa Initiative

11.30/35 am Income Accelerator Program: Tackling child labor risks in cocoa production
Natalia Muñoz Catalán, Sustainability Manager Nestlé

following Discussion

11.55 am Conclusion and Farewell
Beate Weiskopf, German Initiative on Sustainable Cocoa
